

Zoo volunteer programme at Patna Zoo

Sanjay Gandhi Biological Park (Patna Zoo) is a major city highlight. Counted among the largest zoos in the country, Sanjay Gandhi Zoological Park was founded in 1972. The area of this zoo covers about 153 acres of land. Keeping in view the guidelines of the National Zoo Policy (1998), the zoo aims is conservation and captive breeding of different species particularly the rare and endemic species of the Gangetic Plains region for preservation of bio-diversity, exchange with other zoological parks and rehabilitation of suitable species in the wild. It also offers scope for research and scientific study on animal behaviour, diseases and their control, food, nutrition and reproductive process. Kids love to be here as they get to see many animals that they had seen only on text books.

Objectives:

The purpose of the Zoo Volunteer programme is to render services to the zoo in a voluntary manner for the purpose of assisting the management in its day to day function. The volunteer can participate in reception work/visitor management, zoo education programme, maintenance work of the zoo and animal care and health management. The volunteer can benefit to enrich his own experience and learning, while providing quality service to the zoo, which is currently short of adequate trained or qualified manpower.

Volunteer work areas:

1. Manning the visitor information Desk

Along with regular information centre staff, volunteer will act as an information resource for guests by providing directions, answering questions, help the visitors and resolve the complaint at the entrance gate. Assist with administrative office functions for some specified areas relating to visitor control and management.

2. Zoo Education and Awareness programme

The zoos most important mandate is Nature education and awareness. In order to assist in this work a volunteer requires an education training program. Those volunteers who can spare more time, dedicated will be encouraged for this activity. The zoo education staff will give specific training for this work. Information on Zoo mission, purpose, vision, goals and values and animal collection will be given which will be then shared with the visitors and general public around the Zoo. Other work involves the efficient entrance of school groups on days of high group attendance Educational tours and guide them inside the animal exhibit area or through interpretation center.

3. Gift Shop

Volunteers will help the customers and also provide assistance to the gift shop.

4. Zoo Maintenance work

The Volunteer should know that there will be assignments that will come up randomly throughout the year which involves Zoo animal enclosures and public utility area e.g. cleaning, landscaping, sign boards designing etc.

5. Children Playground Attendant

The playground where the children play needs assistance of supervisor and those who would like to help and entertain young children and take care of their safety can work here.

6. Services of Volunteers on Special Events.

Volunteers will help the Zoo in annual/periodical/occasional events like Essay, painting and debate competitions and organization of other special events organized by zoo.

7. Substitute

If the Volunteer do not come for service, he/she will inform the organization (Sanjay Gandhi Biological Park, Patna) prior to his scheduled time of service for taking services of other volunteer.

8. Tour Guide

He/she will take groups around the premises and explain and interpret nature and exhibits to the visitor.

9. Volunteer Management Team

Volunteers, who have demonstrated a commitment to the Zoo, may be asked to accept greater responsibility at the discretion of the Volunteer Coordinator.

10. Ground Keepers

Volunteer will assist the zoo staff in improving and maintaining zoo grounds and other outdoor projects throughout the year.

11. Animal health care

Volunteers, who are a veterinarian or a trained paramedic (Vet.), will assist in animal treatment and provide Veterinary care.

Recruitment:

New Volunteers will be recruited through advertising in zoo website, print and electronic media. Those who have completed secondary school examination shall be eligible to act as volunteer. Those volunteering for specialized jobs which require higher or specialized qualification should at least hold minimum qualification in that field. Test and Personal Interviews shall be conducted to select the volunteers. Prospective Volunteers will be required to complete an orientation process and complete an application form. (Annexure I) An ID shall be issued to all volunteers.

1. Requirements

Applicants to the programme must be 18 years of age or older. An enthusiastic, friendly and positive attitude and the ability to work well with a diverse audience and under diverse and adverse condition are also required. All applicants can be cleared by a background check before they begin training.

2. Training

The Zoo Education Department shall be responsible for the training of all Volunteers. Training sessions for new Volunteers shall be offered at least twice a year, the scheduling and content of which shall be planned by the Education wing. Continuing Education and Membership workshops and special sessions shall be held throughout the year. Workshops will be arranged by the Volunteer Education Committee. Social activities suited to the needs and interests of the Volunteers shall be planned throughout the year.

3. Time Commitment

Volunteers must work based on time commitment schedule decided in consultation with volunteer and zoo Volunteer Programme Co-coordinator.

Benefit to Volunteers

1. Special Awards Certificate of Participation

A zoo volunteer who has rendered service of at least 30 days during a period of one year will be granted a Certificate of Participation.

A Zoo Volunteer who has been active for two (2) or more consecutive years, and who has contributed exemplary and exceptional service to the Zoo, may be granted special award. A committee shall be constituted to award certificate/recognition to eligible volunteers

2. Payment to Volunteers

Volunteering is an opportunity for people to give their time, energy and skills. Volunteers are entitled to out-of-pocket expenses for their volunteering activities. Where someone incurs expenses as a direct result of their volunteering activities they should be reimbursed. Out of pocket expenses for volunteers may include:

- Travelling expenses to and from where they are working as a volunteer.
- Other subsistence costs – e.g. food and drink.
- Any special clothing and/or tools.
- Training.

Organization (Sanjay Gandhi Biological Park, Patna) should ensure that they do not pay volunteers expenses at a flat rate, regardless of the actual expenses incurred; as this greatly increases the chance that the relationship will fall within the scope of regular employment. Payment of out-of-pocket expenses to a reasonable level is legitimate. Organization should:

- Produce detailed guidelines on expenses.
- Provide all volunteers with information about claiming out-of-pocket expenses.
- Provide budget for volunteers' expenses.

3. Volunteer Out of pocket expenses

Amount of volunteer expenses is limited to the prevailing schedule of rates for travel from place of residence to the zoo by public transport. If food/meals are given to the volunteer, its actual cost may be deducted from the out of pocket expenses.

Zoo Volunteer's Ethics Norms and Code of Conduct.

1. Dress Code

Since a volunteer is representing the Zoo, it is important that volunteer should dress appropriately for zoo activity. It is necessary to wear shoes and protective clothing whenever required.

2. Identification

Must wear photo ID provided by organization.

3. Customer Service Standards

Volunteer at Zoo means working with the public. Customer service is vital to the success of the visitor's experience and should be considered as number one priority. If a visitor approaches a volunteer, he/she should always greet them with a smile and offer assistance. If one cannot answer a particular question from a visitor he/she should find someone who can send or direct them to the Reception officer at the front entrance. A volunteer should never ignore or be disrespectful to zoo guests.

4. Conduct

Zoo's Volunteer Program is highly regarded by staff and Volunteers alike and has a reputation for excellence. As a Volunteer staff member, a Volunteer's actions represent the Zoo and the Volunteer Program as a whole. Use of inappropriate language, drugs or alcohol, and fighting etc. are all grounds for dismissal from the program. Any disputes or problems should be handled in a calm manner and should be reported to staff supervisor and the Volunteer Coordinator immediately. Volunteers are important role models and often the most visible representatives of the Zoo. Guests learn a lot from their attitude, comments, and behavior. Zoo expects any volunteer to behave in a manner that is appropriate to ones' Volunteer position at the Zoo.

The Zoo is confident in the professional abilities of all our staff and Volunteer. We expect from the visitors to follow the same basic common sense, rules of conduct that will protect the interests and safety of our visitors, animals, and organization. Certain actions and forms of behavior of visitors are not tolerated by the Volunteers and may result in disciplinary action, including dismissal. A determination of appropriate action will take into consideration the circumstances surrounding the incident and the Volunteer's overall record.

Disciplinary Policy

Verbal Warning:

Any complaint from a service area supervisor or other Zoo staff member will result in a meeting with the Volunteer Coordinator and verbal warning will be filed in the individual's file.

Written Warning

A second infraction will result in suspension from the program for a period of time to be determined by the Volunteer Coordinator and Education Curator and a written warning will be filed in the individual's program file.

Dismissal

A third infraction will result dismissal from the program.

Dissatisfied Customers

Occasions arise when a visitor is harsh, discourteous, speaks in raised voice and abusive, volunteer should remain calm and handle the situation without being disturbed or agitated.

- Volunteer should take a deep breath, remember that the visitor is upset and deserves his/her attention.
- you must listen to visitors patiently.
- To the visitor the problem is important even if it doesn't seem so to a volunteer.
- Problems with food products sold in the restaurant or kiosk can be directed to the restaurant staff.
- Problems with animal exhibit and visibility of animals should be explained.
- Problem with zoo infrastructure and facility the volunteer may direct to the executing staff.

Lost Person Protocol

In the case a child is lost, please find the nearest staff member with a wireless to initiate the search protocols. Please be aware that there is also a wireless at the entrance and office. It is important to stay in the area where the child/parent was last seen. Do not walk around the zoo with the child/parent looking for the lost person. The staff will look in the park and direct help to your location.

Unruly Guests

Any person could be rude to a volunteer or other visitors, feeding the animals, or doing things in the zoo that are not allowed e.g. climbing over exhibit fences, harassing animals, etc.

- This may be reported to the supervisor or another zoo staff/ personnel.
- If they are not available, it should be told to the receptionist or ticket booth staff. Zoo staffs are the best people to deal with this type of situation.
- Unless a person or animal is in immediate danger, such miscreants should not be "reprimanded".

Volunteering Around Children

When assisting with zoo classes or in any other areas of the Zoo, the following standards must be maintained at all times:

- When working with children in a classroom situation, a volunteer should always keep his/her voice calm. Never raise voice to a child.
- In a classroom situation, the Zoo staff person is the only disciplinarian unless a parent is present. A volunteer should not attempt to discipline a child at any time, either verbally or physically.
- The role of a volunteer is to support Zoo staff and to ensure a fun, safe atmosphere for the children.
- Do not touch a child under any circumstances for any reason.
- If a volunteer is on Zoo grounds and witness a child doing something which is not allowed (climbing over exhibit fences, harassing animals, etc.), he/she should tell the parent that the child's actions are not permitted within the zoo. If the behavior persists, a senior staff/ personnel should be told.

Zoonosis

Volunteers that handle animals do run the risk of acquiring/transmitting zoonotic diseases. Zoonotic diseases are those which are shared by man and animals. All Volunteers that handle animals should adhere to the following procedures.

Volunteers that work in the animal care areas must produce a TB test annually. TB test results should be kept on file in the Volunteer office. Frequent hand washing and disinfecting of the environment is recommended as a way to prevent the transmission of zoonotic diseases.

Media

The Zoo Management must approve all media communications including, interview and/or article requests. If a volunteer is contacted by local media for an interview regarding Zoo, the volunteer will inform the Volunteer Coordinator. If approached by a media representative while on zoo grounds, the volunteer should refrain from answering any questions or sharing his/her opinions on a zoo matter, unless it has been previously approved by a representative of the zoo management. Media requesting information from a volunteer should be directed to Reception office at the entrance. Any unauthorized interview or attempt to contact a member of the media regarding any zoo business made by a Volunteer will result in immediate disciplinary action, not limited to but including dismissal from the Volunteer program. The volunteer must sign the Statement of Confidentiality and Organizational Ethics (Annexure II)

Daily Work Routine

Sign-in/Out Procedures.

Volunteers will report before the Education Officer/ Volunteer Co-coordinator/ Reception Officer.

1. Upon Arrival

Volunteer will enter name, date, service area worked, and total hours worked on the Volunteer Hours book/ time sheets kept in the Volunteer co-coordinator's office/ Reception office. Volunteer should sign-in on arrival and sign-out when leaving, from these time sheets, staff can compile monthly records of all Volunteer service areas. Signing in when volunteer arrives at the zoo enables the staff to locate him/her in the event of an emergency.

The volunteer should check bulletin board for updates/new information and then go to assigned work area.

2. Before Departure

Volunteer should check the schedule for any changes.

3. Protocols In case of illness or inability to Work

In the event when a volunteer cannot come to work scheduled for him/her, it should be informed to the Education/Reception officer.

Disclaimer on risk and injury to volunteer

This volunteer programs and activities in a zoo are organized in a safe manner and zoo holds the safety of volunteers as of extreme importance. The Zoo continually strives to reduce such risks and asks that all volunteers follow safety rules and instructions that are designed to protect the volunteer's safety. However, volunteers must recognize that there is an inherent risk of injury when choosing to volunteer for any activity or programme. Additionally, each volunteer is solely responsible for determining if he/she is physically fit and/or properly skilled for any volunteer activity. It is always advisable, especially if the volunteer is disabled in any way or recently suffered an illness, injury or impairment, to consult a physician before undertaking any physical activity.

Warning of Risk

Despite being careful and proper preparation, instruction, medical advice, training and equipment, there is still a risk of serious injury when providing volunteer services. Understandably, not all hazards and dangers can be foreseen. Volunteers must understand that depending upon the volunteer services, certain risks, dangers and injuries due to accidents, inclement weather, slip and falls, inadequate or defective equipment, failure in supervision or instruction, premises defects, and all other circumstances inherent to the particular volunteer services exist. In this regard, it must be recognized that it is impossible for the Zoo to guarantee absolute safety.

Waiver and Release of all Claims and Assumption of Risk

Those providing volunteer services will be expressly assuming the risk and legal liability and waiving and releasing all claims for injuries, damages or loss which they may sustain as a result of participating in any and all activities connected with and associated with volunteer services (including transportation services/vehicle operations, when provided). The volunteer will sign a waiver form to relinquish all claims (Annexure III).

Selection/ re-engagement criteria:

Recruiting or re-engagement of any applicant or existing volunteer should not be a matter of right if he/she is otherwise eligible. The zoo management shall reserve the right to accept any one or reject any application without assigning any reason.
